

DEPARTMENT OF APPLIED BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS FOR ABS SENIORS

Deadline for Submission: November 1, 2007 before 5:00 p.m.

Dear Applied Behavioral Science Senior:

Our department is awarding five new undergraduate awards. Our intent for these ABS awards is to recognize ABS Seniors who have made outstanding achievements in their academic and practicum work. The awards represent each of the five department undergraduate specialty areas as shown below.

Please indicate the specialty area for which you are applying. (Please check only one):

- Barbara C. Etzel Award for Outstanding Achievement in Early Childhood Education
- Montrose M. Wolf Award for Outstanding Achievement in Youth Development and Juvenile Justice
- Outstanding Achievement Award in Community Health and Development Award
- Todd R Risley Award for Outstanding Achievement in Autism & Adults with Developmental Disabilities
- Donald M. Baer Award for Outstanding Achievement in Basic Research and Conceptual Foundations

Minimum Qualifications:

- 3.0 overall KU GPA
- 3.5 departmental GPA
- Plan to graduate in the upcoming spring, summer, or the following fall semester

If you are interested in applying for an award in one of these areas we invite you to assemble an application package consisting of the following items:

- This page as a coversheet (please indicate for which award you are applying)
- One-page letter outlining your career plans
- Current resume or vita
- Current KU ARTS form

If you have further questions on these awards, please contact Dr. Glen White, Awards Committee Chair, for more information. Glen@ku.edu

Application materials must be submitted to the Applied Behavioral Science Awards Committee by 5:00 pm, November 1, 2007. Submit your materials in care of:
